GRANT HADDOCK APPOINTED KING'S COUNSEL

Haddock & Company, Lawyers is pleased to announce that Grant Haddock has been appointed King's Counsel by the Minister of Justice and Attorney General for British Columbia.

Those appointed to this title are recognized as demonstrating professional integrity, good character and excellence in the practice of law.

Backgrounder:

Grant Haddock (1992) is the founder of Haddock and Company, specializing in housing law, including non-profit housing, strata property, residential tenancy and co-op housing. He has created a discounted legal services program for the housing sector, increasing access to justice. A sought-after speaker, he regularly delivers seminars for BC Non-Profit Housing Association and LandlordBC. His advocacy for affordable housing and mentoring of young lawyers has made a significant impact on B.C.'s housing sector. He also contributes to legal publications and continues to champion legal education and access to justice.

Grant's appointment as King's Counsel is shared with the amazing team of lawyers and staff at Haddock & Company who have supported and followed his unwavering lead and commitment to the non-profit and housing sectors.

Congratulations, Grant Haddock, K.C.

2025

Legal Services provided by CGH Law Corporation. This article is for general information purposes only and does not constitute legal advice. Every situation is unique and readers are encouraged to seek out the advice of a lawyer when implementing the strategies suggested in this article.

2025